

Other Meetings: The president may call, or approve the calling by one of the vice-presidents, a meeting to address issues requiring membership attention or action, earlier than the annual or mid-year meetings, A minimum of twenty days notice shall be provided to the general membership.

D) Sales:

All sales shall be advertised as "Indian Nation Brangus XXXX Sale" followed on the next line of the advertisement, in one half the prior line's font size, "Sponsored by the Oklahoma Brangus Association", The 'XXXX' in the prior sentence of this paragraph shall describe, as appropriate, the sale i.e. 'Spring', 'Fall', etc.

Consignors shall be a member of the Association prior to acceptance of the consignments. All consignments shall conform to the Association sales guidelines.

The sales manager shall have ultimate responsibility for the sale, but he and the sales vice-president shall function as a team. The sales manager and auctioneer for all sales taking place during a one year period of time, starting June 1st of the next year, shall be proposed by the sales vice-president to the membership for approval at the current year's annual meeting. In the event of non-compliance with the terms of the written agreement between the sales manager and the Association, performance of the auctioneer, or performance of the sales facility, by majority vote of the membership present, the sales manager and/or auctioneer and/or sale facility could be changed without further recourse on their part.

*The association shall conduct a registered bull and female sale, in accordance with the Association's Sales and Guidelines, the first Saturday of November, and on the second Saturday of March. The location(s), time(s), sale manager(s), and auctioneer(s) of each sale shall be as proposed and approved by a vote of the membership at the annual Association Meeting. The Association also approves, at the Sale Manager's discretion and sole responsibility, a commercial Brangus sale, according to the Association's Sales Rules and Guidelines, immediately following the November and March Registered Sales.
